- 1. Engaging with God and with others is central to living as the light of the world, which Jesus calls us to be (Matt. 5:14). Apart from engaging with God, who else are we called to engage with, and why? Your friends? Your community? People around the world?*
- 2. Paul's letter to the church in Phillipi contains a number of enigmatic directions for how to live a Christian life. Focusing on 4:7-12, what is the key point that Paul is making to the Phillipians? Are these practical directions for us today?*
- 3. What do we need to learn to consider "rubbish," so that we may "gain Christ and be found in him"? (v.8-9)*
- 4. What is it that Christ has already taken hold of, for you, and which he now wants you to take hold of for yourself (v.12)?*
- 5. Who are the "enemies of the cross of Christ" for us today? Who, or what, must we remove from our lives because their destiny is destruction and their glory is in their shame (v.19)?*
